

Headline Summary

<http://www.kimberley.erisk.net>

Kimberley News

EWN Publishing

Map of mining minerals and energy and major ports in Australia

Australian gas and electricity network lobby fearful new energy regulator AEMO will get too much power

World Commodity prices fell by 10.7 per cent in August

Acil Tasman: 22pc of $13 billion cost of Inpex plant will go to NT companies

Carbon crash: Australian electricity, gas, brown coal, gold, fade: economic-advantage of cheap fossil-fuels, lost

Australian gas market revenues decline 30 per cent under carbon cost scenarios

Carbon price $25 to $90/tonne as nations cut carbon: Australia aims for 20 per cent cut by 2020 and long term, 60 per cent

AGL sells Elgas to Linde

LNG project capital costs between December 2005 and July 2007

World LNG trade has relatively small number of suppliers and buyers

Inpex decision swayed the NT election: NT gains, high, but CO2-e pollution exposure, high, too

LNG, oil and gas players plan massive CO2 dumps if carbon price passes $60/tonne

Gas sellers find 25 year carbon-holiday loophole: call for GST-like tax deal to waive carbon cost on gas contracts until contract renewal

Australian LNG investors argue if government pays coal plants to pollute LNG-owners should get paid also

Inpex exit from Kimberley due to "environmental sensitivity of the West Kimberley, and Indigenous rights"

Economic collapse for brown coal; electricity output to contract sharply under all scenarios; copper and gold also

Larrakia Nation group says Inpex LNG Darwin plant incompatible with cultural, environmental standards